Moon girl

(a fairy tale)

Once upon a time there lived an orphan girl. One autumn, late in the evening, the mistress of the house sent the girl out to fetch some water. The girl was cold and began to complain aloud: “If only I could travel to the Sun or the Moon... I am very unhappy. Here only the dogs love me.”

The Sun, The Moon and the Earth heard the girl.

The Sun said: “It is the Earth who offends you. Come up here and stay with me.”

The Earth replied: “Don’t go to the Sun. Don’t do it! You will die; it is too hot there.”

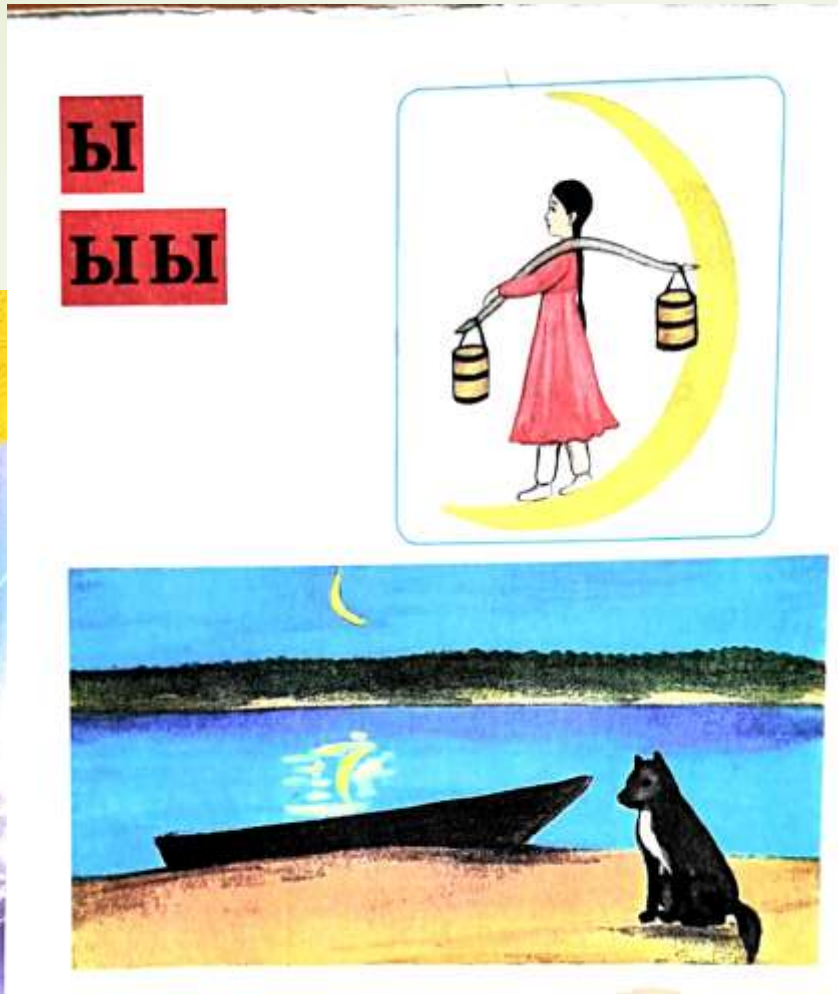

The Moon said: “Don’t stay on Earth. You will be unhappy. Come up here and live with me.”

So the girl thought: “If I go up to the Sun, I will die. If I stay on Earth, I will suffer too. It seems like I better go to the Moon.” And the girl called out the Moon:” Well, Moon, take me! I want to go to you!”

The Moon heard her and raised a blizzard to lift the girl.

Since then, people say that there stands a girl on the Moon, holding her two buckets of water. And the dogs on Earth look up to the Moon and howl. They miss their friend.

► Orphan - сирота, mistress - хозяйка, began to complain – стала жаловаться, if only I could – если бы я только могла, offends - обижает, thought - подумала, if – если, will suffer –буду страдать, It seems like I better – видно, уж лучше, raised a blizzard – подняла метель, howl - воют, miss – скучают.

Let's think!

- If you were the girl from this fairy tale, what would you do (как бы ты поступил): stay on Earth, go up to the Sun, go up to the Moon? Why?

If I were this girl, I would (на её месте, я бы) ...

Because ...

- What do you think, what could make stay (что могло заставить остаться) our girl on the Earth?

- Imagine (представьте), what became the life of our girl on the Moon?

I think (я думаю),

In my opinion (на мой взгляд), ...
